Day 3 mediation update #2

Despite UMFA's strenuous efforts to reach a fair and reasonable agreement with the administration, mediation has reached an impasse.

We have focused on non-monetary proposals, and after three days of mediation we are without an agreement on major issues. UMFA has handed the Employer a without-prejudice final offer, and hopes to hear a positive response from them by noon tomorrow.

Should the Employer fail to respond positively to this offer, picket lines will be up at 7am on Tuesday, November 1st.

Yours,

Mark Hudson
UMFA President
