Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives - MB: Manitoba's Budget 2017/18: When no news is bad news

By: Lynne Fernandez, Errol Black Chair in Labour Issues

The government was well aware that many were dreading yesterday's budget: Non-profit organizations, healthcare workers, educators and public sector workers in general were bracing for Filmon flashbacks. Did the Conservative team take those fears into consideration when putting together the budget?

It might well have. Although it takes days to understand how the budget will filter down to all concerned, there were no obvious flashpoints to grab the public's attention. To a large degree that is because the big bad news items were dribbled out before the budget: the attacks on labour, weakening of drinking water regulations, the 900 job losses at Manitoba Hydro, the closing of 3 emergency rooms in Winnipeg and the cancellation of much-needed healthcare

EVENTS

Joint Walkout Against Tuition Increases (University of Manitoba and University of Winnipeg)

April 18, 2017 – TODAY!

Manitoba Legislature Building

Walkout of classes at 11:30

Rally at 12:30

Despite lobbying efforts, tuition rates have nearly tripled since the 90s. The Manitoba government will soon lift the cap on tuition. They will slash funding to universities this upcoming budget to justify further budget cuts and an increase on tuition. We will show them that students will fight back. It's time to mobilize for walkouts and a rally. This is just the beginning.

\*Note: If students/organizers wish to speak to your students about this event during class to encourage participation, please ensure discussions take place at the end of class.***

Rally for Workers

April 21, 2017

Manitoba Legislature Building

12:15 p.m.

Conservative governments in Manitoba and Saskatchewan are putting the responsibility for deficits on workers.

Join the Public Service Alliance of Canada as we protest austerity agendas and attacks on labour.

Speakers include:

- Hassan Yussuff, CLC President
- Robyn Benson, PSAC National President
- Tom Lindsey, Official Opposition Labour Critic (MB)
- Kevin Rebeck, MFL President
- Carl Gannon, UVAE National President

Communities Not Cuts! Gather and Rally

April 22, 2017

Gather at 11:30 am at Oodena Celebration Circle at The Forks

Rally 12-1 pm

You are invited to join this family and child-friendly event to stand up for your community, and to stand against provincial budget cuts and legislative changes. Click here for more event info.

March for Science – Winnipeg

Officially sponsored by the University of Manitoba: Faculty of Science

April 22, 2017

1:00 – 2:00 p.m. at the Manitoba Legislative Building

The March for Science champions robustly funded and publicly communicated science as a pillar of human freedom and prosperity. We unite as a diverse, nonpartisan group to call for science that upholds the common good and for political leaders and policy makers to enact evidence based policies in the public interest. Click here for more event info.

\*NOTE: The event will be a RALLY (not an actual march). Bring signs appropriate to the theme, we expect lots of media coverage!***

MNU Rally for Safe Patient Care

April 26, 2017

12:30-1:00 pm.

Manitoba Legislature Building

The Manitoba Nurses Union will be holding a rally at the Manitoba Legislature to speak out against recent front line service cuts, including the announcement to close three Winnipeg Emergency Departments.

If you have any questions about the event please contact Samantha Turenne sturenne@manitobanurses.ca
